Career Opportunities
- Long-Term Care Facilities
- Rehabilitative Facilities
- Acute Care Facilities
- Assisted Living Facilities
- Home Health Care
- Hospice

Employment Outlook
Employment of nurse's aides is projected to grow much faster than average, with an estimated employment of approximately 1,564,200 positions across the nation and will grow by 9% in the year 2028; much faster than average for all occupations, in response to the long term care needs of an increasing elderly population (bls.gov).

Program Highlights
- State-approved curriculum that provides hands-on learning and prepares student for the current healthcare environment
- Provides students with a solid foundation for state testing
- Students learn skills in the laboratory and clinical settings
- Classes and clinicals are held during the evening and weekend hours

Institutional Accreditation

Program Approval
The KTC Nurse Aide Training Competency and Evaluation Program (NATCEP) is state approved by the Ohio Department of Health. The program is approved by the Ohio Department of Higher Education, and by the Commission of the Council on Occupational Education.

Credentialing
- Both a written and clinical competency evaluation are administered at the completion of the program as required steps for obtaining State Tested Nursing Assistant (STNA) certification

Benefits of becoming a State Tested Nursing Assistant (STNA)
- First-hand experience in healthcare field
- Trusted profession
- Job security
- Strong personal satisfaction
- Work available in many locations and settings
- Career mobility
- Excellent benefits
- Affordable entry point into healthcare field

For more information contact:
Cynthia Salyer, BSN, RN
NATCEP (STNA) Program Supervisor
740.399.1506
KTCNATCEP@knoxcc.org