

Nail Technician

Course #	Course Name	Course Description
NTT-0100 & NTC-0100	Nail Technician Theory and Clinic	This course is designed to train the student in the basic skills of manicuring, safety judgements, proper work habits, and desirable attitudes necessary to achieve competency in entry-level job skills, to obtain licensure, and to maintain employment in the nail technology field. Students will learn the principles and practices of infection control, anatomy, massage and relaxation technique, nail care procedures and practices, chemistry, nail enhancements, salon operations, communication skills, cosmetology laws and rules, and the skills necessary stand out as a professional in the field.